

Federico Trindade

Federico Trindade is currently studying the Soloist Program: Advanced Postgraduate Diploma in Music in Innovative Choir Leading, by The Royal Academy of Music of Denmark (RAMA), in the city of Aalborg, Denmark (2022), where he also studied the Master of Music, Music Education and Rhythmic Vocal Leadership (Innovative Choir Leading), in 2016. He graduated in Music from UFRGS (Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul) in Choral Conducting (2013).

He works as a conductor, teacher, percussionist, composer and arranger; In addition, he teaches choral music and body percussion workshops, as well as group improvisation and musical leadership development courses. He is founder and director of the Grupo UPA!, since 2009, co-creator of the ProjUpa! (musical/artistic education and upbringing), founded in 2019, Director of the Youth Choir of Colégio Teutônia, since 2020, assistant conductor and percussionist, with maestro Pablo Trindade, in the group Expresso 25, since 2005 and Maestro del Movimiento Coral e Instrumental of the Feevale University, since 2018. Federico, currently, is the only representative of the RAMA in Latin America with the aforementioned practical training.